Dear People,

It was nice hearing from you. Boy, I know everything that is going on back home. At least I got an excuse for not writing. We couldn't write letters while we were riding the trains and we rode the trains quite a bit.

I have to finish this letter in a hurry and get out of here. I'm in the Service club and it is closing now.

By the by, I am sending you some money in this letter, so let me know if you get it.
